RADF21-22-R2016	Ms Donna Cameron	Bloomfield (A contemporary novel set in the Redlands incorporating the farming history of the area). To write a novel set in contemporary Redlands which incorporates the rich farming history of the area and highlights the importance of community. 'Bloomfield' is set in a new housing estate on what was once prime farming land and is the story of old Albert Bloomfield, the last remaining farmer in the area, who has been pressured into selling his farm by his property-developer son. But from behind the six-foot 'neighbour-friendly' fences of his shiny new mcmanion, Albert wonders about his neighbours as he watches the rich red soil being cemented over, curbed and guttered. 'Bloomfield' is an exploration of our need for connection within the suspicion and loneliness created when six-foot fences demarcate boundaries and hide secrets. 3 step process - 1) Research – library/museum archives/interviews with farming families. 2) Work with one of Australia's leading literary editors to help shape the book. 3) Present two free public workshops.	$10,000
RADF21-22-R2017	Storytowns Ptd Ltd	Redland Podcast Tour Storytowns create immersive podcasts that reveal the interesting stories of people, lifestyle, history and experiences of places, towns, groups and activities – often uncovering the untold hidden gems We distribute authentic content to the self-drive market across Australia, alongside other mainstream podcast channels such as Spotify, Apple Podcasts and many more. The Geo-locator feature automatically plays before visitors drive near the featured markets, thus ensuring they are primed and more likely to stop, explore and stay (and spend) in the town. Other features allow visitors to select and listen, or scan a QR code on location. Many users also listen whilst at home, which prompts interest in an area and entices people to actively be part of the market. The initiative also includes a marketing campaign pack for distribution in local media and online channels. (E.g Local and regional newspapers and radio, social media, online editorial, print and promotional items).	$10,000
